

9/13/12

Received a comment from Lynn Bernhard from UDOT. He recommended avoiding the use of “sand” and instead using a word like “abrasives” as there are several types of abrasives that can be used on roads. He said most people are not using sand or slag anymore but other types of abrasives and might be able to get out of the reporting requirements by saying what they are using isn’t considered sand.